

- Home
- Subscribe
- News
- Election
- Sports
- Classifieds
- Community
- Opinion
- Obituaries
- Shop
- Public Notices

Business Briefcase

Dec 31, 2017

Milestones

Salem Academy Charter School has added the Global Web Designers course by Level Up Village to its seventh-grade science curriculum. Using coding languages such as HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, and using tools such as Weebly and Dash, SACS students will partner with other students across the world to design and create a website about solutions to global climate change. Funding for the course was made possible by a grant from the Norman H. Read Trust.